

Title: Jesus Engages (pt2)

Main Scripture passages: John 8:1-11

Sermon by Pastor Kendal Fong for Sunday, August 16, 2020

Sermon Notes

Here is a woman caught in sin, being held accountable according to the law and about to be stoned to death by the very leaders of the law. These same leaders bring her to Jesus to hear how He will respond. In this moment Jesus becomes fully involved. In a surprising turnaround with an unexpected response, we see that Jesus always engages with us!

Please turn to John 8:1-11

U _____ leads to C _____ which leads to R _____ which leads to O _____. Don't fall into any of these traps!

Instead of succumbing to these traps, look to Jesus.

Jesus engages us always:

1. Jesus T _____ (John 8:1-2; 2 John 1:9)
2. Jesus reveals T _____ (8:7; Psalm 25:5)
3. Jesus responds W _____ C _____
(8:10-11; Matthew 9:36)
4. Jesus calls us to F _____ S _____ & L _____
F _____ H _____ (8:11; 2 Timothy 2:21)

APPLICATION:

- Truth by itself can become legalistic. Grace by itself can become too overly accepting. What does living according to both truth and grace mean to you? How can you stand for truth, yet respond with grace in your life?
- What sin do you need to surrender to Christ to glorify Him? In what practical ways can Christ help you to forsake it?
- Pray with humility, praise, and thanksgiving in a spirit of "truth and grace" (John 1:14).
